To begin our presentation today, each speaker will be given 30 minutes for the speech. And now let's welcome our first speaker, Dr. Junaidi Mistar...

Thank you for Dr. Junaidi Mistar. We can sum up that English teachers' competence is still low and can be categorized under the standard. What a tragic case is !

Now, going to the second speaker, Prof. Kim Norman, please welcome....

Thank you very much Prof. Kim Norman. We can conclude that teaching means learning. And the duty of teachers is to encourage and to motivate the students in learning activity.

This is, our last speaker, please give warm applause for Ms. Zain An.....

Thank you for Ms. Zain. We can see that English teachers need to master class management in teaching English language to the students in order the students can actively improve their English aptitude.

This is the end of our presentation today. Now, I give you chance to ask questions towards the speakers.
